

4. Inspect the sprocket teeth for possible wear or damage. Replace if necessary.

5. If the drive chain or sprockets are excessively worn or damaged, they should be replaced. Never use a new chain with worn sprockets; rapid chain wear will result.