

Front Suspension

1. Compression damping adjustment.
2. This adjustment affects how quickly the fork compresses.
3. Turning the screw clockwise will increase compression damping of the front fork leg unit.

Notes.

Adjustment of this screw will affect handling characteristics of your motorcycle. Do not adjust if you do not understand the operation of the front suspension.

